Hidden Shoal Recordings » Salli Lunn Signs to Hidden Shoal

Copenhagen, Denmark; Perth, Western Australia; 23rd April 2010. Hidden Shoal Recordings today announced the signing of Danish spectral noise-rock quartet Salli Lunn.

Salli Lunn weave dark magic in the bleak hinterland of guitar-driven atmospherics, stirring in equal parts pop melody and angular noise. Songs rise and fall in vertiginous shifts, carried by thunderous rhythms, skewed guitar patterns and the compelling vocal presence of Lasse Skjold Bertelsen. Across the expansive terrain of debut album Heresy and Rite, Salli Lunn are utterly bewitching.

Salli Lunn formed in 2001 in the Danish harbour town of Frederikshavn. Three of the four members – Lasse Skjold Bertelsen (vocals and guitars), Line Grønbech (drums and percussion) and Christian Blæhr (guitars and keyboards) – have played as a band for nearly a decade, recently joined by Jan Nissen (bass) to create a line-up that is musically adroit as it is dynamic and powerful. With members of the band playing in other acclaimed acts The Late Parade, Death By Kite and Amber, it is only in recent years that the music of Salli Lunn has received the devotion it demands.

Salli Lunn have supported numerous acclaimed international bands, including Jeniferever, USA Is A Monster and Extra Life. Songs from Heresy and Rite were debuted in Copenhagen and Aarhus in the spring of 2009, where the magazine Soundvenue booked the band for a number of shows. The album was mixed and produced by Jonas Munk (Manual, Causa Sui) and mastered by Anders Schumann (Oh No Ono, Decorate Decorate, Death By Kite). It is released on vinyl and mp3 in Denmark through Duck On The Walk Records, and internationally on CD and mp3 through Hidden Shoal Recordings.

Heresy and Rite is released on July 6th, preceded by the single 'Parachutes Forever' on April 29th, which will be available as a free download.
